

These arrows represent the conditional independence of $Y_i | X_i$, which is independent from everything else